Summer Reading Club!

The Libraries offer a summer reading club for all ages - kids, teens, and adults. Signup for all starts June 10.
Kids start the summer with a Kick Off Party at the Main Library on June 10, between 10 am and noon. Sign up for the SRC, see & touch big trucks in our parking lot, learn about King Tut, and more!

In June, the Main Library hosts Treasures of Tutankhamun, a traveling exhibition by Humanities Texas, the state affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities. Join us for special programs throughout the month examining Ancient Egypt.
During the Kickoff Party on June 10, kids learn about King Tut.
At the Main Library on June 10 at 7 pm, adults learn more about the life of the Boy King.
At the Main Library on June 26 at 1 pm, teens enjoy "Mummies: Wrapped for Eternity".
At the Warmack Branch on June 18 at 7 pm, adults view and learn about beautiful Egyptian jewelry.
These programs are presented by Rollin Phipps. Items from his collection will be on display at the Main Library, and used during the programs.

2 great performers visit all branches as part of the Kids' Summer Reading Club.
