WARMACK: The Readers’ Guild will meet on Mon., Aug. 8 at 7 pm to discuss One Second After, by William R. Forstchen. The explosion of nuclear bombs in space by an unknown adversary emits electromagnetic pulses that instantly and permanently disable electronic devices throughout the United States... one man’s struggle to protect his family in an isolated North Carolina town reminds us of how helpless we’d be without modern technology—a chilling thought, as EMP is a real threat to the industrialized world. Library Journal
