

LIVESTONE LODGE NO. 152
GRAND PRAIRIE SIGNIFICANT LANDMARK
Site Medallion No. 35
1802 Beaumont, Grand Prairie

Originally built east of Grand Prairie near the African American Community known as “The Line,” Livestone Lodge No. 152 for free and accepted masons, was granted a charter on July 24, 1903 by the Prince Hall Masons of Texas. In 1944, the Lodge building was moved to the Dalworth Community. The site, in one of the few areas where African Americans were allowed to buy property, cost $200. As in the “The Line,” Livestone members, and leaders in the African American community of Grand Prairie, continued to provide a center for community gatherings, education, and public meetings.
